Rule 45, Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Subdivisions (c), (d), and (e), as amended on December 1, 2006:

(C) PROTECTION OF PERSONS SUBJECT TO SUBPOENAS

(1) A party or an attorney responsible for the issuance and service of a subpoena shall take reasonable steps to avoid imposing undue burden or expense on a person subject to that subpoena. The court on behalf of which the subpoena was issued shall enforce this duty and impose upon the party or attorney in breach of this duty an appropriate sanction, which may include, but is not limited to, lost earnings and a reasonable attorney's fee.

(2) (A) A person commanded to produce and permit inspection, copying, testing, or sampling of designated electronically stored information, books, papers, documents or tangible things, or inspection of premises need not appear in person at the place of production or inspection unless commanded to appear for deposition, hearing or trial.

(B) Subject to paragraph (d)(2) of this rule, a person commanded to produce and permit inspection, copying, testing, or sampling may, within 14 days after service of the subpoena or before the time specified for compliance if such time is less than 14 days after service, serve upon the party or attorney designated in the subpoena written objection to producing any or all of the designated materials or inspection of the premises — or to producing electronically stored information in the form or forms requested. If objection is made, the party serving the subpoena shall not be entitled to inspect, copy, test, or sample the materials or inspect the premises except pursuant to an order of the court by which the subpoena was issued. If objection has been made, the party serving the subpoena may, upon notice to the person commanded to produce, move at any time for an order to compel the production, inspection, copying, testing, or sampling. Such an order to compel shall protect any person who is not a party or an officer of a party from significant expense resulting from the inspection, copying, testing, or sampling commanded.

(3) (A) On timely motion, the court by which a subpoena was issued shall quash or modify the subpoena if it

(i) fails to allow reasonable time for compliance;

(ii) requires a person who is not a party or an officer of a party to travel to a place more than 100 miles from the place where that person resides, is employed or regularly transacts business in person, except that, subject to the provisions of clause (c)(3)(B)(iii) of this rule, such a person may in order to attend trial be commanded to travel from any such place within the state in which the trial is held;

(iii) requires disclosure of privileged or other protected matter and no exception or waiver applies; or

(iv) subjects a person to undue burden.

(B) If a subpoena

(i) requires disclosure of a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information, or

(ii) requires disclosure of an unretained expert's opinion or information not describing specific events or occurrences in dispute and resulting from the expert's study made not at the request of any party, or

(iii) requires a person who is not a party or an officer of a party to incur substantial expense to travel more than 100 miles to attend trial, the court may, to protect a person subject to or affected by the subpoena, quash or modify the subpoena or, if the party in whose behalf the subpoena is issued shows a substantial need for the testimony or material that cannot be otherwise met without undue hardship and assures that the person to whom the subpoena is addressed will be reasonably compensated, the court may order appearance or production only upon specified conditions.

(D) DUTIES IN RESPONDING TO SUBPOENA

(1) (A) A person responding to a subpoena to produce documents shall produce them as they are kept in the usual course of business or shall organize and label them to correspond with the categories in the demand.

(B) If a subpoena does not specify the form or forms for producing electronically stored information, a person responding to a subpoena must produce the information in a form or forms in which the person ordinarily maintains it or in a form or forms that are reasonably usable.

(C) A person responding to a subpoena need not produce the same electronically stored information in more than one form.

(D) A person responding to a subpoena need not provide discovery of electronically stored information from sources that the person identifies as not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. On motion to compel discovery or to quash, the person from whom discovery is sought must show that the information sought is not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. If that showing is made, the court may nonetheless order discovery from such sources if the requesting party shows good cause, considering the limitations of Rule 26(b)(2)(C). The court may specify conditions for the discovery.

(2) (A) When information subject to a subpoena is withheld on a claim that it is privileged or subject to protection as trial-preparation materials, the claim shall be made expressly and shall be supported by a description of the nature of the documents, communications, or things not produced that is sufficient to enable the demanding party to contest the claim.

(B) If information is produced in response to a subpoena that is subject to a claim of privilege or of protection as trial-preparation material, the person making the claim may notify any party that received the information of the claim and the basis for it. After being notified, a party must promptly return, sequester, or destroy the specified information and any copies it has and may not use or disclose the information until the claim is resolved. A receiving party may promptly present the information to the court under seal for a determination of the claim. If the receiving party disclosed the information before being notified, it must take reasonable steps to retrieve it. The person who produced the information must preserve the information until the claim is resolved.

(e) CONTEMPT Failure of any person without adequate excuse to obey a subpoena served upon that person may be deemed a contempt of the court from which the subpoena issued. An adequate cause for failure to obey exists when a subpoena purports to require a nonparty to attend or produce at a place not within the limits provided by clause (ii) of subparagraph (c)(3)(A).

PAULA FINANCIAL GUARANTEE AND INDEMNIFICATION

BACKGROUND TO GUARANTEE AND INDEMNIFICATION

WHEREAS, PAULA Financial, a Delaware corporation ("PFC") is a member and equity holder of Altus Insurance Holdings, LLC, a limited liability company formed under the laws of Delaware ("Altus");

WHEREAS, Altus has requested Reliance Insurance Company, Reliance National Insurance Company, Reliance National Indemnity Company and United Pacific Insurance Company ("Reliance") to be the issuing insurance company for the underwriting of Workers' Compensation and United States Longshore and Harbor Worker's Compensation Act insurance for risks principally located in the states of Alabama, Alaska, California, Louisiana, Mississippi, Oregon, Texas and Washington ("WC Policies") and to enter into an Underwriting Management Agreement effective February 1, 1999 to do so ("UM Agreement");

WHEREAS, the risk of loss assumed by Reliance on the WC Policies is wholly reinsured to Zurich Reinsurance (North America), Inc. ("Zurich") and subsequently retroceded in part by Zurich to Paula Insurance Company (a subsidiary of PFC) and Altus Casualty Insurance Company, Ltd (a subsidiary of Altus);

WHEREAS, Altus and PFC wish to induce Reliance to be the underwriting insurer for the WC Policies but Zurich is unwilling to accept and assume as reinsurer certain risks associated with and assumed by Reliance in underwriting the WC Policies which Reliance is unwilling to retain without the guarantee and indemnification of PFC;

WHEREAS, Reliance is willing to become an issuing insurance carrier for the WC Policies if PFC guarantees payment and provides indemnification against certain exposures that Reliance assumes or is exposed to by reason of underwriting and issuing the WC Policies;

NOW THEREFORE, for value received and acknowledged by PFC as sufficient and received and in further consideration of the agreement of Reliance to become the issuing insurance carrier for the WC Policies and intending to be legally bound, PFC:

1. Unconditionally and irrevocably will indemnify, hold harmless and reimburse Reliance for a share of all taxes, assessments, fees, loss, allocated loss expense, and related costs and expenses ("assessments"), incurred by Reliance that arise from risks assigned to Reliance under the workers' compensation and United States Longshore and Harbor Worker's Compensation Act residual market plan(s) of any jurisdiction (including the United States) that in the sole discretion of Reliance are incurred by Reliance due to the issuance by Reliance of the WC Policies under the UM Agreement in that jurisdiction. The amount of indemnity and reimbursement due Reliance from PFC will equal the sum obtained by multiplying the Reliance actual net loss incurred by Reliance from the residual market mechanism in that jurisdiction by the fraction obtained by dividing the gross premium written by Reliance from WC Policies in that jurisdiction under the UM Agreement by the total gross premium written for all workers' compensation policies in that jurisdiction by Reliance, all as respects the period under calculation.
2. Unconditionally and irrevocably will indemnify, hold harmless, and reimburse Reliance for a share of all taxes, assessments, fees, loss, allocated loss expense, and related costs and expenses ("assessments"), incurred by Reliance that arise from and are levied by reason of the mandated membership or participation of Reliance in any guarantee association, insolvency fund, FAIR Plan, or similar pool, association or syndicate ("Funds and Pools") of any jurisdiction that in the sole discretion of Reliance are incurred by Reliance due to the issuance by Reliance of the WC Policies under the UM Agreement in that jurisdiction. The amount of indemnity and reimbursement due Reliance from PFC will equal the sum obtained by multiplying the Reliance net assessments (after applying credits actually received by Reliance by reason of the

3. Unconditionally and irrevocably will indemnify, hold harmless, and reimburse Reliance for all fines and related regulatory charges and assessments, as well as related legal defense costs, levied by any jurisdiction or any statistical reporting agency or workers' compensation rating bureau in that jurisdiction by reason of the actions or inactions of Altus in connection with any WC Policy issued by Reliance under the UM Agreement in that jurisdiction;
4. Unconditionally and irrevocably will indemnify, hold harmless, and reimburse Reliance from and against any and all claims, suits, loss, damage, liability, costs and expenses, including reasonable attorney fees, incurred by Reliance and arising from the professional acts, errors or omissions of Altus in performing under the UM Agreement including but not limited to, without limitation, acts, errors or omissions relating to market conduct, unfair insurance practices or other professional errors and omissions of Altus.
5. Unconditionally and irrevocably will indemnify, hold harmless, and reimburse Reliance from and against any and all costs and expenses, including reasonable attorney fees, (other than loss and expense incurred under the coverage terms of a WC Policy) that arise or result from the suspension or termination by any party to the UM Agreement and/or any related third party claims administration agreement that are incurred by Reliance in performing or contracting with a third party (which must be nationally or regionally recognized as competent to perform such services and/or obligations) to perform policy service or claims investigation, adjustment, defense or settlement obligations with respect to the WC Policies after such suspension or termination.
6. Unconditionally and irrevocably will indemnify, hold harmless, and reimburse Reliance from and against any and all loss from the loss of the time value of money that may be incurred by Reliance by virtue of the failure of Altus to reimburse the Controlled Loss Disbursement Account on the following business day after a disbursement is made from that account which was established under that certain Claims Service Agreement between Altus and Reliance made effective February 1, 1999. The time value of money will be based on Reliance's average return on invested cash and will be measured from the date that Reliance funds are actually drawn from the Controlled Disbursement Account until the date that Reliance is reimbursed for the use of those Reliance funds.
7. Unconditionally and irrevocably guarantees to Reliance the due and punctual payment (within five (5) business days of written notice of Reliance therefor) of:
  - a. all deductible reimbursement obligations of policyholders under any policy issued with deductible provisions;
  - b. all premium adjustments of retrospective rated or loss sensitive rated policies;

PFC further waives any and all defenses and discharges available to an indemnitor, guarantor, surety or co-obligor as such to the full extent permitted by law.
9. Agrees that this Guarantee and Indemnification will not be discharged except by complete performance by Altus and Zurich of all of their respective obligations to Reliance arising from any agreements Reliance may have with Altus or Zurich and by PFC of all of its obligations under this Guarantee and Indemnification. In the event that Reliance is required to relinquish or return any payments, in whole or part, which had been previously applied to or retained for application against any obligation under this Guarantee and Indemnification, by reason of a proceeding arising under any applicable bankruptcy or insolvency law, or for any other reason, this Guarantee and Indemnification shall automatically continue to be effective notwithstanding any previous cancellation or release of this Guarantee and Indemnification.

f. There are no consents, authorizations, orders, approvals or non-disapprovals of, or filings or registrations with, any governmental department, commission, board, other regulatory authority or third party that are required to be obtained or submitted by PFC prior to the execution and delivery of this Guarantee and Indemnification or the performance and consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Guarantee and Indemnification.
